ARTIST'S RESALE RIGHT
- THE WAY FORWARD!

With Simon Stokes, Robert Ballagh and Ian Whyte on Thursday, 15th November 2007, at 6.30, in the Georgian
Room, Buswells Hotel, Molesworth Street, Dublin 2.

The Artists' Resale Right (ARR)
(Droit de Suite) In Ireland

Since June 13th 2006, living Irish and EEA artists have been due a resale royalty on all second and subsequent sales of artworks, sold for €3000 or more, through Art Market Professionals.

The aims of this seminar are threefold:

- to review the effectiveness of ARR legislation to date;
- to identify the current market issues;
- to apply lessons already learnt to a framework for the future.

SIMON STOKES is a partner at Blake Laphorn Tarlo Lyons, London and regularly speaks at seminars. He has a particular interest in image rights and art. Simon acts for a number of art publishers, art dealers, and picture libraries. He has written 3 books, which include: 'Artist's Resale Right: Law and Practice'.

ROBERT BALLAGH is one of Ireland's most prominent artists. His 2006 case against the state was the catalyst for the introduction of Artists' Resale Right in this country. Robert is currently the Chairman of The Irish Visual Artists' Rights Organisation (IVARO).

IAN WHYTE is Managing Director at Whyte's, one of Ireland's leading art auction houses. Ian has been a licensed auctioneer since 1975 and his expertise has regularly been sought by the print media, radio and television.

Copyright Association of Ireland aims to

- promote informed debate on copyright
- improve awareness of copyright among users and creators of copyright work and public
- examine legislative measures having effect on copyright
- establish contact with international groups interested in copyright
